The Union Rules are available at www.unite.org.nz

1. You have the right to union representation with any work problem. Try to resolve any matter first. Follow any reasonable request from your union representative.
2. When you leave your employer let us know. You will get a choice to remain a full member or become a supporter.
3. We require members wishing to resign to do so in writing.
4. Fees are set by members and paid by automatic deduction by your employer or by automatic bank payment.
5. To keep fees down email is our main form of communication. Union information is also distributed on worksites.
6. Your email and personal information will be used for union purposes only.
7. It is illegal for an employer to approach you to leave Unite. Let us know if that happens.
8. Whatever the rules are, our guiding principle is that we deal with each other in good faith.
